

CATTLE BUYERS FRAUD

Posted April 2, 2019

Cattle/calf buyers beware? Redcliff RCMP received a report of a possible fraud.

Just a reminder when purchasing cattle off Facebook pages or any sales ad to be very vigilant when sending money/etransfers. Be suspicious when the seller will only communicate in certain ways such as text messages, email, etc and will not communicate in person. Police recommend to not send money until time cattle/calves are actually seen in person.

Be on the lookout! Redcliff RCMP received a report of a suspicious vehicle driving through a yard near Twp Rd 124 and Rg Rd 43, in the early morning hours. Vehicle was located by Redcliff RCMP. Occupants known for property crimes. One occupant arrested on outstanding warrants. The vehicle is a 2009 black Ford F350 with orange running lights. Alberta plate CBN4278
